MWRA Advisory Board Chair Katherine Dunphy

Katherine Dunphy recently announced that she will not be seeking another term as Chairman of the Advisory Board.

Katherine is the longest serving Chairman of the Advisory Board, having first been elected in FY2001. She has also served as the Advisory Board's statutory member of the Water Supply Protection Trust.

She is a strong advocate for ratepayers and has been a major contributor to many of the policies and initiatives that guide the Authority and the Advisory Board.

The great news is that Katherine has decided to remain on the Executive Committee and as Milton's designee to the Advisory Board.
